President's Corner

Dear KAACE members,

Even though the calendar tells us it is fall, the weather certainly does not! It won't be long until the KAACE/KYAE Fall Institute in Louisville, November 29 and 30 at the Galt House. This year's meeting has a slightly different focus. Continuing with the AE idea from previous years, this year's theme is "Absolute Engagement: From the Classroom to the Capitol." KAACE is on the cutting edge presenting issues of civic engagement, legislative concerns, and the opportunity to hear first hand from policy leaders on issues that impact adult education. Many other adult education organizations are also including these topics in their upcoming meetings.

Thursday afternoon's pre-conference workshops have great presenters that will provide all instructors with new ideas to use in the classroom. Friday morning's session will give policy updates from the federal, state, and local levels, as well as an opportunity to ask questions to state policy leaders and become involved in breakout discussion sessions. Attendees will have the opportunity to earn two PDUs by attending both Thursday and Friday sessions. Friday morning is the time for KAACE members to elect the leadership for the next two years. This is an important time for the KAACE organization as we prepare to host the COABE conference in 2009. Please take the initiative to get involved in your adult organization and join KAACE, then vote for the officers and Regional Representatives of KAACE! There are many rewards available for KAACE members, their programs, and their students!

KAACE Scholarships are available for KAACE members to apply for continuing education as well as professional development. This year there will be two $500 scholarships given for each region. Scholarships are also available for outstanding adult education students, as well as other awards and recognitions that will be given at the closing luncheon. Get involved and nominate or submit applications for these honors.

Remember the Silent Auction! The Silent Auction funds our Scholarship program. The more money raised, the more money that will be available to distribute to the members and students through scholarships. Bring clever items and your checkbook! It is a wonderful opportunity to buy special people extraordinary gifts! Visit the kaace.org web site to find the latest information on the KAACE/KYAE Fall Institute, “Absolute Engagement: From the Classroom to the Capitol.” as well as the application for the scholarships. Come to Louisville on November 29 and 30 and become “Absolutely Engaged in the KAACE/KYAE Fall Institute! I hope to see you then!

Officer Elections 2008-2010

All officers, regional reps and special committee chairs will be elected at the KAACE breakfast.

Thank you to the KAACE/KYAE Fall Institute Planning Committee for all the hard work they have done to make the Institute possible. If you haven't done so, I hope that you will go ahead and send in your registration to me at pam.morgan@logan.kyschools. The sooner I received it; I can complete registration tasks for you. Also, the cookbook is being printed. We will have 1000 copies-so let's sellout!!! We could raise a lot of $$ for scholarships!!!! Also, thank you to the current officers, reps and committee chairs. I appreciate your hard work and dedication to KAACE!!

This is the last newsletter I will be preparing for KAACE. The new KAACE President will appoint an editor. I am thankful that I have had this opportunity to learn computer skills to help in newsletter preparation. These skills also helped in completing the cookbook. If you are not a KAACE member, please join us as we advocate for Adult Education students, programs and professionals.
